

MINISTER OF PEACE KILLED

The Greek Prime Minister Karolides, who wanted to save peace in Europe was killed last evening during an important speech about peace and war in Europe.

Greece: The Greek Prime Minister is dead. Last evening he spoke in the capital of Greece about peace and war in Europe. He said, that in Europe will be a war if nobody does anything against that. He also talked about the role of Germany. He thought that Germany will be the main character in that war.

At the end of that speech a man stood up and shot at Karolides. He shot ten times at him, then he killed himself. Till now, nobody knows exactly what man that was. He hasn't any passport with him. The police thinks that the man was a German spy. There were in the last few months many of them in Greece.

But that possibility is only one of about five, but the favourite possibility of the police.

Tomorrow there will be more information and facts about the attack
